We make them suck less.*

BRIEF DESCRIPTION:

Life's transitions suck. We make them suck less.

Divorce and losing a spouse or significant other are the top two most stressful life events. Not only is the emotional upheaval incredible, suddenly you have to manage your life on your own when before you had someone by your side.

A New Leaf is there to help you through these transitions. Project planning tools and templates help to keep you on track, whether you're meeting with your attorney, making sense of your finances as a newly single person or simply trying to get through your day.

A New Leaf is the one-stop shop for the newly single. The folks at A New Leaf have done the research so you don't have to. What do these legal terms mean? What should I bring to my meeting with the attorney? Who are the qualified professionals in my area to help me?

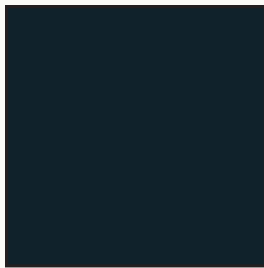

By providing you with the tools you need to navigate through these processes, we hope to relieve you of stress and get you back to being you again sooner.
